LOCAL BREVITIES.

Christmas comes on Wednesday.
Lost—At the rink, Thanksgiving evening, a woolen shawl; the finder will please return to this office.

The annual Election of the Royal Arch Masons and Installation will take place Wednesday, Dec. 11, 1895. By order of the High Priest.
J. A. COREY.

Elder Collins preaches his farewell sermon in the Baptist church Sunday morning. He will also preach in the M. E. church Sunday evening.

Mrs. Goodman of Denver, and Mrs. Collar of Dodge City, are visiting Mrs. Sam'l Wollman and family. The former lady is Mrs. Wollman's mother and the latter her aunt.—La. Croese Clarion, Nov. 29.

Having bought a very large line of goods this fall for the holidays, I wish to inform the public that my stock of diamonds, watches, clocks, and silverware is by far the largest and finest ever brought to this city. Special care having been taken to select the very best of goods. Everything guaranteed as represented.
P. H. YOUNG, the Jeweler.

H. A. Breckenridge, the Rock Island agent, has an Eskimo Spitz dog, that follows his owner wherever he goes, and attracts no little attention. The name is also written Esquimaux. The dog has long curling white silky hair, very bushy, and has a small head, short erect ears and a wolf like aspect. It is docile, sagacious and patient.

The services in the Presbyterian church Sunday evening were not altogether what might be termed unique, but they were interesting. It was called praise service, and consisted of hymns, solos, recitations, quartettes, etc. There was a good congregation and we believe every one present was highly entertained and greatly edified.

The editor of the Dodge City Democrat performed the extraordinary gastronomic feat of consuming seventeen pounds of turkey and one quart of sack on Thanksgiving day.

R. D. Clappett, a traveling salesman, who resides in this city, met with a painful accident, in Topeka, during the storm of last week, by slipping on the icy pavements, and in the fall he sustained a severe sprain in his left ankle. Mr. Clappett returned home Saturday night, and is confined to his house, but hopes to be able to resume business in a few weeks.

One of the finest entertainments held in Dodge City for several years was the Mask ball given by the members of Lewis Post G. A. R., in McCarty's rink, on Thanksgiving night. Over one hundred tickets were sold, and the total receipts amounted to about $145. The Womans' Relief Corps realized $32.70 from the excellent supper given. Nearly 500 people were present, including men, women and children.

Captain John Goodwine, who resided in Ford county for several years, and held the office of Register of Deeds, two years, and who removed to Wichita three years ago, has taken up his residence in the Soldiers' Home with his family. Mr. Goodwine has been in poor health for some time, and is unable to perform any kind of labor. The GLOBE-REPUBLICAN sympathizes with him in his misfortunes.

Subscribers for tickets to the Lecture Course may call at Amos' Drug Store, Monday, Dec. 9th, or thereafter, and secure their tickets and seats for the four entertainments. The chart will be open at that time only for the holders of season tickets only. It will be advisable to call as early as possible and secure good seats for the course. The dates and entertainments are as follows:

Slayton Jubilee Singers, Dec. 18, 1895.
Miss Alof Kraer, Jan. 20, 1896.
Arthur Laining, Feb. 22d, 1896.
C. H. Fraser, March 16th, 1896.
The chart will be open for the sale of single tickets Monday, Dec. 16th, price 75c, general admission will be 50c, children 25c.

Elder Collins will preach his farewell sermon on Sunday morning next, in the Baptist church. He will also occupy the pulpit in the M. E. church on Sunday evening. Elder Collins intends making his home with a daughter who lives in Fairhaven, Washington. Before going there he will visit friends in Pierceville, and a son in Pueblo. Father Collins is now in his 81st year, and will retire from the ministry, which he has served so faithfully during a period of 60 years. He has been a resident of Dodge City 30 years, and leaves his congregation and many friends here with sincere regret. The raising of money to remove the church debt was a labor he is very much proud of, and he is to be congratulated for this devotion to his cause. He is very much overcome by the generosity of the people of Dodge City in assisting him to remove an incumbrance from the church property, and he feels that he retires as pastor of the church, with much cause for enjoyment in the contemplation of his pastoral charge and conduct. We trust that there will be a good attendance at the farewell meeting Sunday morning, and that the meeting Sunday night will also be well attended. A good congregation at both meetings will be an appreciation of his labors in a cause in which he has devoted so many years of his life. He leaves with the good wishes of many friends for more years of enjoyment of health and comfort in his retirement, which we hope will be the crowning years of his life, and that he can view the other shore with feelings of having done his duty nobly and well, and when he enters the pearly gates may he be made welcome with a greeting from the Lord: "Well done, good and faithful servant, thou hast been faithful over a few things, I will make thee ruler over many things; enter thou into the joy of thy Lord."

Prof. Dyche of Kansas is to go in search of the North Pole, and as he has been up that way, he says he knows where to find it. Let him bring it to Kansas if it is not too heavy.

Day school and Sabbath school teachers will do well to see those dainty booklets, and Christmas cards, at the City Drug Store, before deciding how to remember their pupils.

Effie Ellaler, supported by a meritorious company, will play in Dodge City, at the opera house, on Tuesday, Dec. 17th. The Press gives a glowing account of this Company. We shall notice more fully next week.

In the large printing offices they have a man hired to read the President's messages and give an editorial opinion of it. This is about as far as most people go on in the message—somebody's opinion of it.

The School teachers of the Ashland schools are all red-headed; or as the Journal calls them, "sandy completed." And besides that, they are all Methodists. The school teachers in the Dodge City schools get "red-headed" only once in a while.

The nimble jackrabbit had best hide himself to a more congenial climate as his carcass is worth 75c for a dozen, consequently he is being pursued from sunrise until dark. A car load was shipped from Pawnee Rock last year.—Great Bend Register.

President Cleveland's message treats of only two subjects, foreign relations and money. The London Times says the President is "marking time" on the foreign relations subject. We suppose from this that he is dancing to a tune the Republican congress will set to fast music.

MARRIED—By Judge Burson, at his residence, Sunday night, Rev. Anderson Reynolds, of Eureka, Kansas, to Mrs. Melliss Reynolds, of Ford county.

Also by the same, at his residence, Wednesday night, Fred A. Erick to Miss Mary F. Peacock, daughter of N. O. Peacock, all of Ford county.

THE Santa Fe Trail editor is worried over the report that the queen of Italy never wears a pair of stockings twice. That's nothing. Some people never wear a pair of stockings once.—Hutchinson News.

And some people never change their socks.

The annual Kiowa rabbit hunt took place Tuesday, and the event was celebrated near Mullenville with the usual grand ball and banquet. One hundred and sixty-five farmers and cowboys on horseback, participated in the hunt, and nearly 6,000 rabbits were killed. They were shipped free over the railways and consigned to humane societies in Chicago and Cleveland. The Woods county, Oklahoma, hunt will take place next week and nearly 400 horsemen will participate in it.

Death of Mrs. F. M. Pope.

Mrs. Pope, wife of Frank M. Pope, a conductor on the Santa Fe road, died in this city Sunday morning, after an illness of three weeks, of blood poisoning. Mrs. Pope was an active member of the Woman's Relief Corps and the Eastern Star, and the funeral services were conducted by the members of these societies. The funeral services were held in the Presbyterian church, Tuesday afternoon, Rev. J. M. Gillette delivering an appropriate and impressive sermon, after which the officers of the W. R. C. and the Eastern Star performed the last sad rites. A very large number of people were in attendance at the church services, and a large number of the friends and acquaintances of the family followed the remains to Maple Grove cemetery where the burial took place. Mrs. Pope was a woman very much respected by her family and friends, and many people regret her untimely departure. In common with the citizens of Dodge City, the GLOBE-REPUBLICAN extends sympathy to family and friends in bereavement. The taking off of a beloved wife, a devoted mother and a sincere friend is the cause of much mourning, but no words that we can utter can assuage the grief, console the loss or repress the tears; and may God in His wisdom give peace and comfort to those in sorrowing; and be a guide to those left motherless.

The floral decorations at the church were fine, and the tribute was deserving to one who had made life a pathway strewn with flowers.

"A loving one from us has flown
A voice we loved is still,
A place is vacant in our home,
Which never can be filled.
"God in His wisdom has recalled,
His doom of earth is given,
Although the body slumbers here
The soul is safe in Heaven.

Laura Edna Hall was born in Newark, Ohio, Dec. 14, 1858. She was married at Sullivan, Ill., to Frank M. Pope, July 3d, 1880. The family moved to Dodge City in the fall of 1884. Two daughters survive the mother; a girl 14 years of age, and one two years old.

Resolutions of the Lewis Relief Corps No. 179.

WHEREAS—The Almighty in His infinite wisdom has removed from our midst our loved sister Mrs. Laura Pope, be it therefore,
RESOLVED—That in the death of our sister, the Corps loses a worthy member, the community an exemplary citizen, and the family a fond wife and loving mother.
RESOLVED—That the family in this great bereavement has our deepest sympathy and while they mourn the loss of a wife and mother, we can offer them the comforting assurance, that He who giveth and taketh away doth all things for the best.
RESOLVED—That in memory of our beloved sister the Corps Charter, and badges of the several members be draped for a period of thirty days. That these resolutions be spread on our records, a copy furnished to the bereaved family and to the city papers for publication.
